

Prescribed Uniforms FAQ

Many of our uniformed service members ask about the prescribed uniform for Federal Appreciation Day and the AAMA Annual Conference. This information is provided as a member service, and believed to be correct; however, you should verify with your appropriate Service.

Appropriate civilian attire for all AAMA sessions is business dress casual.

Army – Army Service Uniform (ASU) or Class A

Navy – Dress Blues

Air Force – Full Service Dress on Federal Appreciation Day, and any authorized combination of Air Force blue uniforms during the other days of the Conference

Public Health Service - Service dress for Federal Appreciation Day, and SD or khakis during the other days of the Conference
