

Give Your Graduate Level Students an Extra Incentive to Excel: E-Publication in AAMA Executive Online!

Have you, your students, or colleagues authored any articles/case studies or theses that would be of interest to healthcare administrators with a broad range of specialties?

SUBMIT IT FOR PUBLICATION IN AAMA EXECUTIVE ONLINE!!

STUDENT PUBLISHING OPPORTUNITIES

Being published offers the opportunity to:

Share Knowledge and Expertise
Enhance Professional Stature
Add to One's Resume

AAMA Executive Online, the bi-monthly e-publication of the American Academy of Medical Administrators, is actively seeking student papers for publication. Founded in 1957, AAMA serves multidisciplinary healthcare management professionals at all levels, within all types of health organizations, by promoting the advancement of members' knowledge, professional development, credentials and personal achievements through continuing education and research in healthcare management.

AAMA Executive Online feature articles focus on perspectives, innovations, reports and updates related to healthcare administration. The purpose of these articles is to inform practitioners of methods to strengthen their skills, offer them practical tools, share successes or failures, expand on or enhance quality. Submit a compelling and well-received term paper/thesis that you or your student recently authored in a graduate-level class. All feature articles are blind peer-reviewed by AAMA colleagues.

For submission details, visit <http://www.aameda.org/MemberServices/Exec/ExecOnline.html>, or email Laura Bowles at executiveeditor@aameda.org.

American Academy of Medical Administrators
701 Lee Street, Suite 600, Des Plaines, IL 60016
Phone: 847-759-8601 Fax: 847-759-8602
www.aameda.org

