II. DESCRIPTION OF THE ADVANCEMENT PROJECT

A. Personal Achievement Documentation (PAD) (see page 4)

The PAD calculates points for achievements earned through professional achievement, formal education, continuing professional education, and AAMA/ACCA service. Pertinent documentation is required. Attach documentation for points applied to local AAMA/ACCA and non-AAMA/ACCA activities such as CEUs, diplomas, and awards received, etc. Documentation of national AAMA/ACCA activities is not needed.

Advancement with the PAD requires one of the following methods:

1. 35 points documented on the PAD through professional achievements.
2. 35 points from a combination of the PAD and case studies (10 points each)

B. Case Studies

1. If you chose to provide case studies alone or in conjunction with the PAD, should relate to the segment or facet of cardiovascular administration/leadership and may describe an actual leadership problem encountered in your day-to-day activities in a cardiovascular administration position. If guidance is needed, please contact Academy headquarters.
2. One case study may be a written presentation made at an AAMA/ACCA national or local conference.
3. No specific length is required; however, accepted case studies have generally been in the range of ten to twelve double-spaced pages.
4. If you choose to write a case study, contact Academy headquarters and request the Style Guidelines document.
5. Each case study is worth 12 points.
6. Three copies of each case study must be submitted for review. You may submit each case study electronically to AAMA headquarters by emailing membership@aameda.org.

C. An Original Thesis

1. The thesis must be an original paper related to cardiovascular administration in the broadest sense. If guidance is needed, please contact Academy headquarters.
2. A Member may complete the thesis prior to meeting required membership years (see page 2, step 1); advancement will be awarded only when the membership requirement is met.
3. The Thesis is intended to be a contribution to the literature on healthcare delivery. Appropriate literature documentation (bibliography) is expected.
4. No specific length is required; however, approved thesis papers have generally been in the range of 30 double-spaced pages, excluding appendices and other documentation.
5. If you choose to write a thesis, contact Academy headquarters and request the Style Guidelines document.
6. The thesis paper is worth 35 points.
7. Three copies must be submitted for review. You may submit the thesis electronically to AAMA headquarters by emailing membership@aameda.org.

FACCA PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT DOCUMENTATION (PAD)

Pertinent documentation required. Attach documentation for points applied to local AAMA/ACCA and non-AAMA/ACCA activities such as CEUs, diplomas, and awards received, etc. Documentation for national AAMA/ACCA activities is not needed.

35 points are required for advancement with the PAD alone.
